Comment on Passing Events By Frederic Heath

Within one week two San Fran-cisco preachers have come out for Socialism. People are wondering who'll be the next.

The Canadians seem to have voted more against annexation than against reciprocity. Nationalism and false patriotism won over internationalism and human brotherhood.

It is significant of the times that the recent congress of state governors passed a resolution condemning the courts for their invasions of the freedom and eights of the people.

Every week brings new Socialist papers to our table. One of the latest new ones to reach us is the Torch of Reason issued from Frank-ville, Pa.

A shibboleth has its value, there is no denying. Thus, the Christian organization of Socialists in this country floats this defy to the breeze. The Golden Rule vs. the Rule of Gold. The Women Suffragists, those campaigners of the astonishing vitality, now have a compelling phrase: "Shall the Home he our World, or the World our Home?"

The people of Vienna have been rioting because of the intolerable high cost of living, and demanded ood at proper cost. The government alled out the soldiers and in place of giving the people food gave them bullets. Many were killed, the dis-patches said. When rulers sow bulets among the people every bullet will return in a great crop for Socialism.

The most beloved capitalist in Keosha, Wis., who got mountains of lowers at his funeral last week, appears to have earned his alleged title by keeping a good part of his wealth out of the way of the tax collector. ost common objections to Socialism is that it would take away the freedom of the people. Now I will say right here that this would be a very aerious objection, and Communism at least is open to that objection. There may be also certain kinds of Socialism that would take away the people's freedom, but Social-Democracy will never do it.

But as to freedom and liberty, who has liberty and who is free under the present economic system?

Some time ago, an employer who was on the witness stand gave the following definition of liberty:

"Why, liberty is the right of an American to do as he d--- pleases."

And he added, "This is the ideal of American manhood."

In one way, the man was right. Our present conditions have made possible for a small class of Americana to do as they dthat is looked upon by the press, the pulpit, and the schools as the ideal of American manhood.

Of course, it can never be real freedom. It may be the liberty of the of the alave, who has just got free-but it never is the freedom of the free man. The ex-slaves of the old Romans were called libertines, and when set at liberty they were noted for their licentiousness. They did "as they d- pleased."

If the capitalist right to oppress others is liberty, then our present capitalist liberty is right. Liberty of that kind, of course, can be used or abused, and our economic conditions aet a premium upon the abuse of liberty by any ex-slave of the system who has become free.

m as such can never be abused. Freedom is inborn with is, and the only trouble is, we cannot enjoy it, because a certain small class, the capitalist class—the libertines of the present economic system is absolutely at liberty. And these men use their liberty to oppress us.

Freedom is closely connected with economic conditions. A man is not free who is dependent upon another for a job-for a chance to make livelihood. Under the present economic system with its unbridled competition, only the successful are free. Only the successful can throw-off the shackles of industrial slavery-and with this liberty they often become libertines, in every sense of the word. For lurther details, please read the columns of any metropolitan daily.

But we cannot live moral lives, unless we are free. Hence, freedom is the ideal of the Social-Democrats, and we will combat and defy anything and anybody, even within the Socialist movement and within the labor movement, that will curtail our freedom.

But who has freedom under the PRESENT economic system?

Take all the different classes of our people, and in all of them you will find the same lack of freedom-all except a handful of plutocrats who have succeeded in gaining the monopoly of "liberty." All the others, business men, farmers, and wage esrners, are not free.

Let us take the business men first. Now we all know that competitive siness is by its very nature corrupt. Every sincere business man will tell you that it is impossible to conduct his affairs as an upright man and be successful, for the simple reason that it is always the unscrupulona rogue who sets the standard. It is the rascal who commences with adulterating goods, with using false advertising—but the honest man must follow suit. The same holds good for the manufacturer. It is the rescal uers made; by the ruling class are who begins cutting the wages of the employes; endangering the lives of the workmen by neglecting to put up appliances for their protection, and Another suggestive fact. About 90 per cent of all business men at least once in their lives go into bankruptcy. Still another; the mammoth store -the department atore-is continually wiping out small merchants, and the large manufacturing establishments and the trusts are doing the same thing for the amall shops. So it is pretty clear that the business men, the merchanta, the manufacturers, are not free.

It is hardly necessary to add that the professional class, lawyers doctors, teachers, preachers, are not free. They are of course mainly dependent upon the other classes, and especially upon the class WITH MONEY, for a living. Only in rare casea can they follow their own inclinations, and express their opinions without fear or favor. Surely, none of the men here mentioned can in any true sense be said to be free.

Now let us consider the farmers. In times of old, they were looked npon as the "free and independent class" par excellence. The present high prices for the staple goods of the farmers have for a moment relieved that class. They experience a temporary prosperity. But let us recollect the crisis of the nineties and the mournful story of the presidential election of s896, when the poor farmers, hurdened with debts and misery, like a drowning man clutching at the last straw, as a class voted for "free allver." It was lucky for the farmers more than for anybody slae that they did not succeed at that time.

But this present prosperity is only temporary. The farmers will deteriorate again. They are bound to deteriorate as long as the present economic system lasts. The farmers are the serfa of the trusts, the railroads and the speculators. They are not free.

And how about the wage workers? Are they free? We hardly need to answer. Think of the insecurity and dependence which day by day makes the workman subject to his employer's favors, and to every of his, first in order to obtain his daily subsistence, and second, in order to retain it. And must not a waga worker give up his identity? He must identify himself with his master's private interest, no matter whether the master is inferior to him or not-nay, be must help him and obey him even when the master is a rogue who adulterates goods, or in other ways carries on a warfere against society.

In other words, the waga system possesses this miserable for which makes it so similar to ancient slavery, that the workman is used entirely for his master's private ends. This was the definition of slavery,

And how about those who have NO work and cannot find any? they not in a still worse predicament? Are they free? Are they not the alaves of misery, hunger and every other ill? Surely no workman, whether employed or not, can be called free.

So to make a long story short, it is not so much the fact that there are rich and poor in the world under the present system, but the fact that the poor have to depend upon the rich for a living, that makes us all aervants and alaves. It is the terrible economic power of the caclass that keeps us from becoming free. Only Socialism can be And we shall become free only in the degree that we introduce Socia Social-Democratic measures into our

These, in brief, are the reasons why we have outgrown a good deal of the United States constitution.

But do not worry. This obstacle is not half as fornidable as it looks.

Among others there is one splendid clause in the constitution which we have not outgrown. It is the one which gives congress the power to do anything that is for the general welfsre: Under that clause we can introduce Socialism without a constitutional amendment.

Again, the supreme court has no legal power to declare a law uncon-stitutional. Certain isolated state-ments on the part of a few colonial politicians, and an overweening keenness to prove that the constitution is a class document-which can easily be proved without resorting to exaggeration—have led some Socialists to believe that the courts have such power. We "aim, in the domain of what is called religion, at atheism." It is not easy to reply to such charges in a useful way, and of course no other kind of reply is justified. If I protest that the Bishop of Tennessee does not know what Socialism is, or he would not denounce it in such terms, no doubt he would reply, "The Bishop of Utah does not know what Socialism is or he would not call him-self a Socialist." I admit that Marxian sociology is harder for the Christian thinker to ntilize than Darwinian biology. Darwin's life was calm and peaceful compared with Marx's, who was driven from one Christian state .s another, and did, without doubt, become embit-. Then, too, Darwin was an Englishman and Marx a German, and, as Professor James put it, "The ex-pression of English thought is relieved from German technicality and ahrillness, and content to suggest and remain vague, and to be, in the Eng-lish fashion, devout."

If a aerious effort be made to translate into American present-day thought the "German technicality" of Marx, I feel strongly that his aocial philosophy will be found of the greatest value to those who agree there are imperfections, aye injustices, in our present industrial eco-nomic condition." (a) In the July number of the American Journal of Sociology, Professor Charles A. Ellwood of the University of Missouri finds serious limitations in the first of these principles. Of course Marx was partial and one-sided. He was not a Christian; and yet a careful reading of Professor Ellwood's criticism does not change my conviction that the emphasis Marx put upon the physical environment in the development of importance and reformers overlook is Riis whether he still held to a statement he was reported to have made that the environment counted 90 per cent in determining the quality of life. He replied, "No; hecause now-I know that it counts for 99 per cent. self a Socialist." Such an exchange of words would be profitless; and yet I feel that I must make my protest, and I hope that I may make it in a way conducive to the truth.

I am not a member of the party, the Christian Church being the only society to which I belong, but I have spoken at Socialist meetings in Pennsylvania, Colorado, Utah, California and Oregon, and my experience has not been like that described by the Bishop of Tennessee. who says: "It is a well-known fact that when carnest Christian men, some of the priests of the Church have consented to speak at Socialis meetings and express sympathy with real and righteous methods of reform. they are met with gibes and disap-proval." All that is necessary to wir a thoughtful hearing and respectful eritieism at Socialist meetings is to show that one knows what he is talking about. I have never heard any names applied to Christians as hard as those the Bishop applies to Socialists, though no doubt bitter words are sometimes spoken, espeeially by foreign-born Socialists, who know of Christianity only as it is represented by a State Church. But I think I speak for more Socialists than myself, when I say that Socialism enables me to he more patient and charitable than I could be if I believed that God's method of making mankind good and strong was to give to a few persons great wealth in or der that they might bestow it in alms upon the poor, or as henefactors support colleges, charities, and churches. I know that rich men are not their own masters, but only parts of an economic aystem, in which competition makes mrn selfish in spite of themselves, and in which the struggle for success demands most of their time and thought. While we honor all generous and kind-hearted men and women and are grateful to them for rising above the sordid selfishness about them, we feel that human society will not be organized according to the will of God until justice takes the place of charity, and the Co-operative Commonwealth replaces the regime of individualistic competition. operate against the spread of seditious Socialism among the youth of Russia.

Despatches from Berlin, last July, stated that Emperor William and military men of Germany, have taken steps to inaugurate the Boy Seout movement in that country. They are quoted as saying that "Germany's fighting efficiency can thus he augmented greatly, and the war spirit strengthened." The Socialists throughout Europe as well as non-Socialists who oppose war, are strennously contending against this Boy Seout scheme. It would seem that no one in Europe questions the objeet of the movement as being to develop the war spirit in the boys.

In the face of these well known facts, published in Europe and America, it would seem that Commander C, de Vidal Hundt and all the part are facts. mander C. de Vidal Huodt, and others, are presuming much on the gross ignorance of their leaders, when they claim that the Boy Scouts are organized to make a little fun for the youths, and to teach the hoys how to cook, sew buttons on their garments, and to excite the admiration of their girl friends.

The solemn truth is that Gen. Baden-Powell, the monarchs of Enrope, and the plutocrats of America invented and are promoting the Scout organization for the purpose of defeating the worldwide move-ment for peace and for international courts of arbitration, and to raise up an army with which to suppress all efforts of oppressed peoples, who may be of that innocent sort as to may desire to be free, and to shoot may be of that innocent sort as to have for its sole object the develop- ment of the boys physically, and to teach them to cook, and sew on their buttons, but it is very certain that its originators had, and still have in the solid the solid that the solid the solid that the view, quite a different object. It is wicked and unchristian, and 1 hope that no boy who reads this will join the cunningly devised plan to convert innocent boys into "fighting machines." Gen. Sherman said: "War is hell." My advice to the boys is to think good thoughts, do kindly deeds, speak friendly words, stand up manfully for peace and good fellow-ship, and if the kings and nabobs of Europe, and the grafting monopolists of America want to get up killing bees and wars, and thus "raise hell" by wholesale murder, to let them do the killing themselves.

Through periods of feverish so-twity the strength and health of the workers are mercileasly undermined, and during periods of enforced idleness the workers are frequently reduced to starvation.

The climates of this chaotic system of production are the regularly neutring industrial depressions and crises which paralyze the nation every fifteen or twenty years.

In its mad and reckless race for profits the capitalist class is bound to asplicit the workers to the very limit of their endurance and in sacrifiee their physical, moral and mental welfare to fits own instable greed. Capitalish keeps the masses of workingmen in poverty.

NOW READY

"United States Constitution and Socialism" allee Hood

This pamphiet of 32 pages is very timely. It shows that the United States Constitution does not deserve the sacred and profound respect our capitalist institutions and politicians would have us bestow upon it. Progress demands that the truth be told and that the last vestige of false pride so many Americans take in this fundamental law, be destroyed.

It contains the real truth about our "patriotic" forefathers. It has history not found in our school books. The book contains a frank expensition of the hypocritical and fictitious patriotism of the framers of our constitution.

Socialist locale should push this book. It is good propagands.

Of what complaint did Stolypin No complaint. Everybody was satisfied. In refitting this old joke it must be admitted that it about hits the case. Even Socialists who abhor assassination and "propaganda of the deed," have to admit that there are times when, all other chance shut off, the people may be looked to, to turn to violence.

A lecturer in Detroit last Sunday a Prof. E. W. Burrell, said that-"The murder of Stolypin would not be nearly so bad as the slaughter of tens of shousands of Russian revolution.sts who have met death through his orders."

Former Antagonist Speaks As Socialist SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD-Business Dep't

The Rev. G. G. Hamilton, of Texas, Confesses His Error and Takes His Stand with the Working Class

OSSIBLY I have been the hardest and most persistent fighter of Socialism in the state of Texas. I have left nothing undone n waging vigorous and nacompromising warfare on the movement. I onght vigorously, venomously, bitterly, but always openly.

I believed that the men back of the movement were opposed to re-ligion, and that they held lax views regarding marriage. Basing my bc-lief on the teaching of certain Socialist writers, I openly charged that the movement was anti-religious and subversive of true morality.

In support of my position, realizing that the movement was great and growing, I sounded the warning to Christian people through the press and from the platform. I met in joint discussion some of the ablest Socialists of the southwest.

Socialism and Morality

My position was that the Socialist proposals led inevitably to destruc-tion of the church and the breaking up of the home. I could see nothing else and sought nothing else. I eagerly bought every book that hear of that seemed to with support my position. Is it a eop-mere coincidence that men who tudy fight Socialism from this standpoint passage from those books. There are hundreds of Socialist books, movement has ever had such a literature, yet those who fight Socialism as an atheistic, anti-religious, free love movement are restricted to a scant dozen volumes.

It is wrong, unfair and altogether unjust to brand a great movement with obloquy and infamy because of what a few misguided zealots have said, even though some of these stood high in that movement. Every way. In 1856, when John C. Fremont was the candidate of the newly formed Republican party for president, the Democrats adopted the taunting slogan: "Fremout, free soil, free niggers, free women." Nothing clearer from the reading of the epistle of Paul than that there were free lovers in the early church. Does any one lay the blame for the teaching and practice upon Christianity?

I am not specially seeking a de-bate, but to satisfy all minds I make cialism on these grounds: To such person I will deliver all the books, and they are marked that I secured a copy of "Christianity and the Social Crisis," a work written by Dr. Walter Rauschenhaute used in my warfare against Social-ism, and I will undertake to meet and refute the charges-provided that I be allowed to affirm in a second discussion this proposition— "Socialism is fundamentally right and in harmony with the teachings of the Bible."

Individual vs. Social Salvation

In religion I had always been a stickler for the strictly individualistic idea of sin and salvation. Socialism seemed to atsnd for the very opposite. Between Christianity and Socialism, as it seemed to me, there was a great gulf fixed. Their differences, fundamentally, were irreconcilable, altogether at variance. I must learn how men calling themselves Christians could also call themselves Socialists. How could be the same; but in the method by which this was to be secured they were as wide apart as the poles. As I understood Christianity, all politi-cal and social evils were the result of sin, and sin was an individual, not social matter. To create a better ocial order was a long, slow, and tedious process.

But my narrow individualistic viewa prevented my seeing that there was anything inherently wrong in and salvation.

The True Home

I believe in the home, the Christian home, not the tawdry manaion of the idle rich, nor yet the crowded, germ-infected, dis-ease-breeding tenement of the suffering poor. I believe in the home, not the gilded palace surfeited with luxury and inhabited by selfishness personified, nor yet the place scant in room and poorly furnished where tired and weary and heart-sore parents find a place to eat and sleep and where ragged and dirty and half-fed children grow up in poverty and ignorance and vice to and a mensce to society. I believe in the home where love lives, where the one man loves the one woman and the woman loves the one man, where there la the merry prattle of innocent childhood, where there is work enough for all to keep the body atrong and health, and the mind clear and clean and bright, where there is leisure for reading and and recreation, where there are all the comforts of life and none of its hurtful luxuries .- The Rev. Hamilton, no came corrupt and employers oppressed the workers and defrauded consumers, these were individual acts. Such men needed the regenerating grace of God, then they would love one another and never wish to do another injury. Possibly it had never occurred to me that while regeneration implants a will to do right, it does not define for a man what is right, and that it is very natural for a man to consider him new movement has suffered in that self in the right where his own intereats are concerned. To me there was nothing inherently wrong in the system, as such. All our political, social and industrial wrongs were but excrecences, painful, yet, for the present unavoidable. The many had always been poor and the few rich and this would continue until the to deal justly and righteously with their less unfortunate brethren.

ociai repentance and social faith and order that they might obtain social salvation. The old propheta always took the side of the poor against their oppressors. No wild-eyed advocate of the modern social revolution was ever hercer in his denunciations of the wrong and oppression nor condemned interest, rent and profit with more vehemence than did Nehemiah and Ezekiel (see Neb. 5:

t-13; Ezek, 18:t-t8). No worse picture can you find anywhere of the tyranny of a centralized government than that por-trayed by Samuel. (See I. Sam. 8:

No Socialist claims that the government of Israel under Bloses and the judges was Socialism; neither Is claimed that the communism of the early Christians (See Acts 2:44, 45; 4:33-35), and which continued until Constantine corrupted and secularized the church, was Socialism. But we do claim that the same spirit which controlled in Israel before the Kings and in Christianity before Constantine applied in an age of machine production means Socialism. "The letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

"At Ease in Zion" Socialists are being continually condemned as calamity howlers and prophets of evil by those who are "at ease in Zion," and crying, "Prophesy unto us smooth things"; but it would be hard indeed to bring a severer indictment against the existing order, or rather disorder, than Ishiah. Yet the indictment was true in the case of Israel, and it is true today when applied to our boasted Christian civilization—it is awfully fearfully, horribly true. Humanity suffers from a social disease and no salve of reform can heal her featering sorea or put healthy red blood in her flabby arterles. Our troubles are economic. Their roots are in an unjust economic and social system. as sure and certain in its operation the law of gravitation. his discovery and perfect understand-ing of this law, Karl Marx, sixty years ago, was able to prophesy just the things that are today taking place before our eyes. Through wast combinations of wealth a few men hold the power of life and death over millions. Before God, it is not right. The present system of production and exchange puts the greed of one set of men against the humanity of another set of men; it puts dividends above human lives and magnifies the dollar as of more consequence than the honor women or the innocence of childpoverty and woe, of vice and erime, of prostitution and shame, of degra-dation and damnation. It is cruel, inhuman, anarchial, unChristian, it is the foe of morality, the enemy of virtue, the corrupter of religion; it is a monster of iniquity blighting hu-man lives, wrecking human hopes, and damning human souls. It is a relic of the outgrown past and its doom is already sealed. An awak-ened and arouse i righteous public conscience will relegate it to the darkness of oblivion where it will repose with every form of tyranny and oppression that has gone before. "Yes, I Am a Socialist"

Yea, I am a Socialist. Does that name carry odlum with it? Does it mean ostraciam and the allenation of friends once near and dear? The Socialists' Opportunity

Discontent and Unrest Everywhere—Want and Fear of Want in Midst of Superabundance and Unlimited Capacity for Producing the Necessaries and Reasonable Luxuries of Life—Socialism Alone Has a Remedy to Offer — Every Socialist Must Become a Teacher—How to Do It

Never before in the history of America has there been such universal unrest among the mass of the people.

They are being pinched and squeezed by the trusts and combinations that control the necessities of life to such an extent that there is discontent and rebellion brewing in every direction.

CRY FOR REMEDY

The nation with one voice is crying for a remedy for want and the fear of want in the midst of plenty and unlimited possibilities. You Socialists alone understand the cause of the trouble and the remedy for it. Do not imagine that this discontent will necessarily make Socialists out of your neighbors. It will only do so, provided you show them the cause of the trouble and point out the remedy-which is: That the land and means of production and transportation must be socially owned and things produced for social use, instead of for profit for the few capitalista.

THE HERALD BEST EDUCATOR

Generally speaking the best method of placing the Socialist message of hope before your neighbora is to place before them a good piece of Socialist literature. For the purpose of arousing their interest you will find that the Social-Democratic Herald will do the work. Every active Socialist should have at least a bundle of five coming to him each week to use to atart discontented persons in the right direction and get them as regular subscribers whenever possible.

Years of the severest test show that where the Hersid goes, Socialism and Socialist organization grows. Order a bundle weekly.

Comrades and aympathizers:— Thirty-four weeks have gone by since our first announcement of the establishment of a Socialist daily newspaper in Milwaukee was made. We broke the ice because of the great pressure that was brought upon us both from within and without the state to publish a daily paper. We were beseiged with numerous requests both in person and by letter to get busy. All claimed that the time, the place, and also the funds were here. We were urged to take advantage of the occasion.

over, making investigations in various lines to be safe in our progress 4.300 bonds. This remainder will have and venture. We examined the newspaper business from a business point of view. We were convinced we could publish a daily to the great advantage of the Socialist movement not only of the city of Milwaukee hut also of the state. We knew and we know that the great industrial belt all about the Great Lakea was and is ripe for Socialism and all that there was and is needed was to spark it. But we wanted to make that daily paper pay itself and a lit-tle more. The unanimous conclusion on the part of all concerned was that to effect this at least $100,000 was necessary. Of this fact the directors and stockholders of the Social-Democratic I ablishing Company were likewise convinced. Accordingly, it was decided to issue 10,000 bonds to be sold for a face value of ten dollars cach, to mortgage the plant as a security for both principle 4 per cent interest semi-annually, and ave them run for t6, 17, 18, 19 and 20 years, beginning December t, 1911, the date of their issue. Sub-scription for these bonds was then thrown open to Socialists, to nniona and to the general public. We then to be taken by Socialists, and princi-pally by those residing in Wisconsin. This remainder must be disposed of positively hefore December t, 1911. We thought we could begin publishing the daily about the tst of October. 'ut soon found out that we had to postpone that event to the tst of Nov., and now, comrades, it acems we will have to postpone it once more, and to the tst of December unless you act now and stop delaying your subscription for bonds. If Wiscon sin Socialists do their duty the 4,300 bonds may be taken up surely within the next two weeks. To hesitate at this moment when much progress has made toward a successful launching of the paper is very likely to put all our efforts to naught. It is up to every man and woman holding and moulding Socialist opinions in the state of Wisconsin, to apring to the task and do his and her share.

Comrades, let us shove the thermometer for next week way beyone the $75,000 mark. Besides you are making just a loan. You will never regret having subscribed for a bond to establish a first class metropolitan Socialist daily newspaper in Milwau-kee. The paper will be a hummer set to hard work getting the bonds subscribed for. We appealed to the from the very first issue, and will fly and live by its own efforts. Now, local and national unions, to Social-ist organizations all over the country next week.

tions. The conditions of the present are warping our morality to an amazing degree. The idea of individualism is still strong in the breasts of a large part of our populace. Individualism earnies with it the right of concentration of it the right of concentration of attention. These sort of young men wealth. To accomplish this, suppression of the masses is resorted to they must be amused; and the ruinby the moneyed classes. This, in short, is our condition today. What, now, has this to do with our morality? Girls, born of poor and ignorant parents, are off-times driven into lives of shame by their own fathers and mothers because the own rathers and monters because the parents need the earnings accruing therefrom to buy bread and butter. Sometimes the girls enter this life of their own accord, but always for Sometimes the girls enter this life. of their own accord, but always for the same reason. Some girls are brought up decently enough, even given a meager education, and yet conditions force them to lead im-moral lives. The conditions of so-ciety absolutely prohibit some wom-en and girls from leading decent lives. They can not earn enough to eat or dress. The passions of men hred under like conditions, are their only resort for a livelihood.

But far the largest number of women who are immoral are not professionally so. The young girl of the large city has not the motherly care she needs nor the educa-tional care, either; due in hoth cases to economic conditions. She is driven to work by necessity. She is ill paid, and finds but few joys in life. Her ultimate pleasure is attendance at cheap dance halls, the saloon, the dive, or the public park concert. In each of these places she concert. In each of these places she comes in contact with young men raised under conditions similar to hers. Their money is scarce, their education poor, their actions and words are coarse; they attend the worst of the theaters and the vilest motion picture shows. They attempt to imitate high society in its immorality. They have learned of human reproduction in alleys and dives. They have been described but one woman in a hundred from the gutter can accomplish little in the end. What we must do is to reach the root of the trouble, change the intolerable and unequal conditions, and bring about a hasis of economy which permits of decent and moral living. Look about you, fathers and mothers, and all you who regard with respect and affection the man reproduction in alleys and dives. They look upon the raping of young womanhood as a natural right. They know no better and they have no chance to learn better.

In the public parks, the girl comes in contact with the most dangerous beast of modern civilization, the pampered scion of the well-to-do family; he has money, perhaps an automobile, and he preys upon wom-en and girls. At the evening con-

> At the other end of the social At the other end of the social scale, where we find the 400 or more sorts of society, immorality is as rampant as in the slum. Economic conditions are here likewise to blame. The women are criminally operated upon to avoid the nuisance of children, and drunkenness, vice and prostitution are recorded as expenses. and prostitution are regarded as lect entertainment. Both "sorie vice and slum vice are due to con-ditions; the one is coupled with education, the other with ignorance.

> The most distressing phase of ou economic conditions is the fact that wages are so low in comparison to the cost of living, that young men are becoming unable to marry at a reasonable age, or even at all. Hence, increased numbers of women are being driven into the world to support themselves. The trend of the past decade has been toward a marriageless era. What of morality then? What of the desirection of the home and the family?

Religion has done naught to re-lieve these conditions. Ministers, bought by wealth, defend existing affairs. Political parties have purposely overlooked these things. But the time is arriving when they must regard with respect and affection the purity and sanctity of young manhood and young womanhood, and find the agency that will accomplish this end. It is your duly to your children, and to all boys and girls, to keep them clean and decent and pure; and not to hand them filthy to a degraded world, the half, of which is already immoral.

An Evergreen Eruption Our gabby and frothy fellow citi- glories in the fact that this city am-zen, Dr. Ralph Elmergreen, who wasn't reappointed on the Emerg-ency Hospital board, to the board's great loss, we suppose, was just the kind of nimble chap to rush in, in the police ambulance controversy. And it is lands the pig-headed inhu-manity of Chief Janssen, and pours out torrents of foolishness against the ambulance, his chief "argument" against which is that it contains room for more than one victim.

Listen to the silly rot of the silly Elmergreen: "Its use would be criminal to say the least. The idea of having four compartments is absurd in itself. It would kill one person to wait for another to get in-jured before rushing to the hospital."

And as if he were afraid he would not make himself wholly foolish, he draws the phony agony out to more absurd lengths: "It would be extremely inhuman to crowd one per-son into an upper berth, and then wait for another, a third, and then a fourth to get injured before making a trip to a hospital."

As if to answer this irresponsible nonsense, at just the moment the Evergreen tirade was being put in type by the Sentinel and other morning papers, twelve men were overeome in a caisson at the foot of Og-den avenue, were rescued more dead than alive and bundled to the Emergency hospital in patrol wagons and anything else that could be printed this paper interviewed Miss pressed into service, while the much White. She said the papers had discussed auto ambulance owned by the city was being held out of use a jealous grudge—just such an ambu-lance as was needed to get these in-jured men to the hospital, not pre-ferring one over another, but tables bulance is being held out of use!

The trouble with our friend, Evergreen's, argument is that it does not square with city conditions and needs. In a city like Milwaukee a large number of accidents happen where there is not only one victim but several. It was so in the recent street car accident. It was so in the calesca accident. It was so in the caisson accident. It was so in the Middleton fire and in the Manville fire. It is so in numerous industrial accidents. The city fathers are to be congratulated that they have purchased an ambulance that meets such emergency cases.

And the futility of the Evergreen argument lies in the fact that the ambulance in question can just as well carry one person as four.

No one denies that it runs. No one will begrudge the fact that it has ca-pacity to spare when it only carries one person. The point is that, up to four victims, it meets any emergency that may arise.

As to the ambulance holding one victim while it waited for another to get hurt, that may sound like argument to the gabble-headed Evergreen, but it will not have weight with the average run of Milwaukeeans.

The papers have tried, in their parshamefully micrepresented what she had said. She found the ambulance ferring one over another, but taking several at a time.

a dishonest afternoon paper made her say what it wanted her to say. That's what the interests have news-

We wish women-folk would accompany their husbands, brothers and sons on a "looking excursion" throughout our clothes section. They are better acquainted with fabrics than men are, and will add strength to our claim that we are "firing better cloth, better tailoring, better patterns and better selections than any other store—yet without charging a bit more than one must pay for clothes of vastly inferior texture and quality. In conclusion, we suggest that trite but true advice—"The earlier you select, the better your selection."

The Story & Clark Piano Co. of Grand Haven, Mich., has a Milwaukee office and has also gone into the prize business. Recently one of their catch advertisements appeared in the Journal, which will print most anything for money, and a north side young lady sent in a "correct an-swer" and got a letter telling her that she was entitled to a prize of $115. As the part of the letter so informing her was printed on the letter with a printing press it is evident that the firm must have sent out a raft of such announcements. In fact the puzzle pictures are made so simple that almost every one who tries sends in the right answer. So each puzzle brings the firm s chance to pull-on a long list of alleged prize winners. Now, did the North Side girl get her $115. Naw! Nix! The "divvel s hit!"

We reprint a fac simile of the letter telling her of her good luck. Well, when she went to the store she found out these lacts:

That she would not get the $tt5. All she would get was a credit for that sum if she paid over her money for piano at a price set by them. That the letter was so cunningly worded that the piano she would get part credit on was not one of their make, but some piano they had gotten from some job lot somewhere, most likely

In one of the city schools this week the article by our European correspondent, in last weck's Herald, on the postal service in Germany, was used as a text book by one of the classes and a very interesting and interested recitation was had, we are informed. Our European correspondent, Otto F. Mack, now resident of Stutigart, where he is in business representing a large American manu--Heeds City Attorney and Kills facturer, was formerly a Milwaukee boy. He gives the Herald Irom time to time some most entertaining and instructive articles.

> William Franzen, wealthy hottle manufacturer of Milwaukee, who died the other day, was an enthusiastic supporter of the so-ealled Tax Payers League. After his death his estate was appraised in the Milwaukee county court and showed that he died possessed of great riches. Being an ardent Taxdodgers League man it naturally followed that curiosity should be rife as to how much taxes he had been paying to Milwaukee and lo! now comes the revelation that he used Okauchee as his official residence in order to escape baving to pay taxes in Milwaukee. Like most of the Taxdodgers League hunch, his loyalty to Milwaukee does not bear close scrutiny!

several hard swipes at the judiciary "Why should we respect the law?" h

Janssen's conduct in this ambulance matter is the dirtiest ever pulled off Milwaukee. The more that is shown about the ambulance the more it is shown to be practically above

Please note not only that Chief Janssen has gone a-hunting (leaving the city to the absolute mercy of the eriminal element, who are only kept safe while Janssen is in town and hanging around the Pfister hotel Weber & Steuber bar-rooms), but that he has gone a-hunting in the company of Michael Carpenter, former fire and police commissioner. Old eronies, those two, for it was Carpenter that Janssen is alleged to have blackmailed Sherbie Becker into reappointing on the board. Too bad that Com. Phillip was too much engaged just now to have also gone with them a-hunting. But the Sentinel would not hear of his deserting his post just now, for there has to be one "distinierested" member of the commission on guard!

Haw, haw! Well, well. well! Now the Sentinel editor has finally got it fixed up to suit him. The new police ambulance kept out of use through Janssen's spite would represent "gross inhumanity," if any patient if any patient to be placed in it! Just listen to this: If expert medical and hospital testimony is worth a rush, Chiel Janssen would have been censurable for the negligence of gross inhumanity, and for arrogant contempt for expert opinion, if he had permitted the use of that vehicle; and we don't know but "criminal negligence" would have been the right word for it. And to make matters still more omical the Sentinel editor gives as is expert authority, a "medical man," no less a wonder handed at it.
